

A N A C T

T O

Establish the rules of construction and codification of the laws of the Grand Duchy of Eniarku.

BE IT ENACTED by the Grand Duke’s most Royal Highness, by and with the advice of His Councillors in this present Council assembled, and by the authority of the same in accordance with the Constitution of the Grand Duchy of Eniarku, as follows:—

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Construction and Codification Act of 2024”.

SECTION 2. TABLE OF CONTENTS.

The table of contents for this Act is as follows:

Sec. 1.	Short title.
Sec. 2.	Table of contents.
Sec. 3.	Definitions.
TITLE I—RULES OF CONSTRUCTION
Sec. 101.	General structure; formatting.
Sec. 102.	Titles.
Sec. 103.	Preambles; controlling clauses.
TITLE II—RULES OF CODIFICATION
Sec. 201.	Corpus Juris ; structure; numbering.
Sec. 202.	Codification of public laws; procedure.
TITLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS
Sec. 301.	Amendments.
Sec. 302.	Codification in Corpus Juris .

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS.

- (a) “Public law” and “law” are used interchangeably to designate any provision under Article 26 of the Constitution [G.D. En. Const. Art. 26]; specifically:
- (i) The abbreviation “A.S. YY##” is used to designate all fully enacted Acts of State, where “YY” is the two-digit year of enactment and “##” is the sequential numbering of the law (such that, for “Act of State 2024-001”, the abbreviation is “A.S. 2401”).
 - (ii) The abbreviation “O.C. YY##” is used to designate all fully enacted Orders-in-Council, where “YY” is the two-digit year of enactment and “##” is the sequential numbering of the law (such that, for “Orders-in-Council 2024-001”, the abbreviation is “O.C. 2401”).
 - (iii) The abbreviation “L.P. YY##” is used to designate all fully enacted Letters Patent, where “YY” is the two-digit year of enactment and “##” is the sequential numbering of the law (such that, for “Letters Patent 2024-001”, the abbreviation is “L.P. 2401”).

- (iv) The abbreviation “S.P. YY##” is used to designate all fully enacted Sovereign Proclamations, where “YY” is the two-digit year of enactment and “##” is the sequential numbering of the law (such that, for “Sovereign Proclamation 2024-001”, the abbreviation is “S.P. 2401”).
- (b) “Document” is used to designate the printed or electronically-typed text of the law.
- (c) “Body” is used to designate the text in the document of a law that immediately follows the Definitions section and immediately precedes the seal of The Sovereign on the final page.
- (d) “Draft” is used to designate any version or iteration of a law’s document that has yet to be affixed with the seal of The Sovereign.
- (e) “Empty line” is used to designate any blank line of standard, 12-point text.

TITLE I—RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

SEC. 101. GENERAL STRUCTURE; FORMATTING.

- (a) ACTS OF STATE.—A public law classified as an “Act of State”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must adhere to the following rules of structure and formatting:
 - (i) The first page of the law’s document is considered the “title page” and must contain following elements, in this order:
 - (1) The State Coat of Arms, pursuant to A.S. 2405 §201(a);
 - (2) The language “AN ACT TO”; and,
 - (3) The official long-form title of the law, as defined by §102(a)(i).
 - (ii) The title page elements provided for in the previous subsection must be presented with sufficient vertical spacing such that they do not overlap.
 - (iii) Upon enactment, the signature of The Sovereign must be affixed beneath two lines of empty text that immediately follow the enabling clause provided for in §103(a).
 - (iv) lower-right corner of the final page.
 - (v) The page of the document immediately following the title page is considered the “contents section” and must begin with the enabling clause provided for in §103(a).
 - (vi) The contents section continues with a section numbered “SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.”, below which the short title of the law is provided, as defined by §102(a)(ii).
 - (vii) The subject of the previous section is followed by a section numbered “SECTION 2. TABLE OF CONTENTS.”, below which an itemized table of contents of the law is provided with sequential section numbers beginning at “Sec. 1” in the left column of a two-column borderless table and the corresponding section names in the right column of the table, both left-aligned in their respective columns. Main sections of the law are identified by center-aligned text in the right column beginning with “TITLE I—(title subject)”, while the section numbers in the left column skip a line. The first three sections in the table of contents are numbered “Sec. 1”, “Sec. 2”, and “Sec. 3”, while subsequent section numbers are three digits, beginning with the first digit of the corresponding title (such that “I” equals “1”, “II” equals “2”, and so on) and the second two digits increasing incrementally until the next title (“101”, “102”, and so on), when numbering of the second two digits in the section number restarts at “01”.

- (viii) The subject of the previous section is followed by a section numbered “SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS.”, below which an itemized list of definitions of terms in the body of the law is provided.
- (ix) The subjects described in the foregoing subsections of this section are to be followed by a center-aligned, boldface, capitalized title heading with the title number (“TITLE I”) followed by an em-dash (“—”), followed by the identifying name of the title section (such as “RULES OF CONSTRUCTION”).
- (x) The subject of the previous section is followed by left-aligned, boldface, capitalized section headings with the same specifications defined in §§(vi) of this section, which is in turn followed by progressively indented list values beginning with lowercase letters (“a”), proceeding to lowercase Roman numerals (“i”), and terminating at the third list-level with Arabic numerals (“1”).
- (xi) The document proceeds by repeating the sequences described in §§(ix)-(x) above until the body is closed on the final page of the document by an empty line, the enabling clause provided in §103(a), two empty lines, and the right-aligned seal of The Sovereign in red, as provided in §§(iii).
- (xii) In addition to the foregoing subsections, the document must adhere to the following formatting and typeface requirements:
 - (1) The entire document must use 1-inch margins on all sides.
 - (2) The entire document must use 1-point spacing between lines and standard list-item indentation as needed.
 - (3) Unless specifically provided for in another section of this Act, the document must use black, 12-point Times New Roman font throughout.
 - (4) On the title page, the State Coat of Arms is center-aligned on the sixth empty line of 14-point text from the top margin of the document, is sized to be 3.5 inches wide by 2.3 inches tall, and is followed by an additional empty line of 14-point text, which is followed by a line of boldface 48-point text containing “A N A C T”, with one space between letters and three spaces between words. This is followed by a line of 14-point text containing “T O” with the same spacing requirements as above, another empty line of 14-point text, and concluding with as many lines as necessary of boldface, standard capitalization, 14-point text containing the long-form title of the law, as in §§(i)(3).
 - (5) Images should be list-level aligned, of reasonable size such that details are easily visible, and surrounded by a 1-point black border.
 - (6) Drafts of the law’s document should be affixed with a lower-left-to-upper-right diagonal watermark reading “DRAFT” in red, 180-point Arial font.

- (b) ORDERS-IN-COUNCIL.—A public law classified as an “Orders-in-Council”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must adhere to the following rules of structure and formatting:
- (i) The first page of the law’s document is considered the “title page” and must contain the following elements, in this order:
 - (1) The center-aligned monocolored version of the Grand Ducal Crown, pursuant to A.S. 2405 §302(a)(i), sized to be 1.28 inches wide by 1 inch tall, followed by an empty line;
 - (2) The center-aligned, title-case, italicized text “At the Court at ”, followed by the location at which the Orders-in-Council were executed, followed by an empty line;
 - (3) The center-aligned, capitalized text containing the date of execution, in the form “THE ##AB DAY OF MM YYYY”, where “##” is the two-digit day of the month, “AB” is the appropriate ordinal suffix (in 9-point font), “MM” is the full month name, and “YYYY” is the four-digit year, followed by an empty line;
 - (4) The center-aligned, capitalized text “PRESENT,”, followed by an empty line;
 - (5) The center-aligned, capitalized text “THE GRAND DUKE’S MOST ROYAL HIGHNESS”, followed immediately on the next line by the capitalized text “IN COUNCIL”, followed by two empty lines;
 - (6) The following justified line begins with a standard indentation, followed by the enabling clause provided for in §103(b).
 - (ii) The text of the document immediately following the title information in §§(i) is considered the “contents section”.
 - (iii) The contents section continues with the specific provisions of the document, written in justified text, with each new paragraph being preceded by an empty line and then beginning with standard indentation and the text “It is further ordered that”.
 - (iv) The final line of the contents section is followed by five empty lines, which in turn are followed by the right-aligned seal of The Sovereign in black.
 - (v) In addition to the foregoing subsections, the document must adhere to the following formatting and typeface requirements:
 - (1) The entire document must use 1-inch margins on all sides, with the contents section contained within 5.5 inches.
 - (2) The entire document must use 1.15-point spacing between lines and standard list-item indentation as needed.
 - (3) Unless specifically provided for in another section of this Act, the document must use black, 12-point Times New Roman font throughout.
 - (4) All parts of the document must be presented with sufficient vertical spacing such that they do not overlap.

- (5) Drafts of the law’s document should be affixed with a lower-left-to-upper-right diagonal watermark reading “DRAFT” in red, 180-point Arial font.
- (c) LETTERS PATENT.—A public law classified as a “Letters Patent”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must adhere to the following rules of structure and formatting:
- (i) The first page of the law’s document is considered the “title page” and must contain the following elements, in this order:
 - (1) The center-aligned monocolored version of the Grand Ducal Crown (as defined by A.S. 2401), sized to be 1.28 inches wide by 1 inch tall, followed by an empty line;
 - (2) The justified text beginning with a boldface drop letter of the first letter of The Sovereign’s regnal name with height that covers three lines of 12-point text, followed by boldface, 12-point text containing the remainder of The Sovereign’s regnal name, followed by “THE ##”, where “##” is replaced by the ordinal number of The Sovereign’s regnal name (such as “FIRST”), which is followed by the enabling clause provided for in §103(c).
 - (ii) The text of the document immediately following the title information in §§(i) and beginning with “WHEREAS” is considered the “contents section”.
 - (iii) The contents section continues with the specific prefatory provisions of the document, each separated by semicolons and enumerated by “AND WHEREAS” and written in justified text with no paragraph breaks, and is followed by the declaratory provisions of the document, which begins with “NOW KNOW YE that We of Our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion”, followed by the declaratory provisions of the document written in justified text with no paragraph breaks, each separated by semicolons and enumerated by “AND”.
 - (iv) The final line of the contents section is followed by an empty line, which in turn is followed by a line of center-aligned, capitalized, boldface text containing “BY WARRANT UNDER THE GRAND DUKE’S SIGN MANUAL”.
 - (v) The line in §§(iv) is followed by two empty lines, which in turn are followed by a line of right-aligned, capitalized, boldface text containing the location at which the Letters Patent were enacted, and this line is in turn followed by a line of 9-point, right-aligned, capitalized, boldface text containing the date on which the Letters Patent were enacted with the year in Roman numerals.
 - (vi) In addition to the foregoing subsections, the document must adhere to the following formatting and typeface requirements:
 - (1) The entire document must use 1.15-point spacing between lines.
 - (2) The entire document (except for the drop letter described in §§(i)(2)) must use black, 12-point Times New Roman font throughout.

- (3) Drafts of the law’s document should be affixed with a lower-left-to-upper-right diagonal watermark reading “DRAFT” in red, 180-point Arial font.
- (d) SOVEREIGN PROCLAMATIONS.—A public law classified as a “Sovereign Proclamation”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must adhere to the following rules of structure and formatting:
- (i) The first page of the law’s document is considered the “title page” and must contain following elements, in this order:
 - (1) The center-aligned Greater Coat of Arms, which is sized to be 2 inches wide by 2.14 inches tall, followed by an empty line;
 - (2) Center-aligned, capitalized, boldface, 18-point text containing “By the G R A N D D U K E,”, with one space between the letters of “Grand Duke” only and three spaces between all words, followed immediately by a line of center-aligned, capitalized, boldface, 40-point text containing “A P R O C L A M A T I O N.”, with one space between letters and three spaces between words, followed by an empty line of 12-point text.
 - (ii) The text of the document immediately following the title information in §§(i) that begins with a justified, non-indented paragraph beginning with “WHEREAS” is considered the “contents section”.
 - (iii) The contents section continues with the specific provisions of the document, each enumerated by an empty line followed by a justified, non-indented paragraph beginning with “WHEREAS”.
 - (iv) The final provision of the document is followed by an empty line followed by a paragraph containing solely the enabling clause provided for in §103(d), which in turn is followed by a justified indented list numbered using capitalized Roman numerals (“I.”), wherein each list item contains specific declarations of the Proclamation.
 - (v) The final list item in the previous section is followed by a single empty line, which in turn is followed by a center-aligned paragraph that must contain only the enabling clause provided for in §103(d), another empty line, and the right-aligned seal of The Sovereign in red.
 - (vi) In addition to the foregoing subsections, the document must adhere to the following formatting and typeface requirements:
 - (1) The entire document must use 0.5-inch margins on all sides.
 - (2) The entire document must use 1.15-point spacing between lines and standard list-item indentation as needed.
 - (3) Unless specifically provided for in another section of this Act, the document must use black, 12-point Times New Roman font throughout.
 - (4) All parts of the document must be presented with sufficient vertical spacing such that they do not overlap.
 - (5) Drafts of the law’s document should be affixed with a lower-left-to-upper-right diagonal watermark reading “DRAFT” in red, 180-point Arial font.

SEC. 102. TITLES.

- (a) ACTS OF STATE.—A public law classified as an “Act of State”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must be titled as follows:
 - (i) The full title must read “AN ACT TO [Purpose 2]; TO [Purpose 2]; AND TO [Purpose N].”, where the bracketed sections are replaced with the specific purposes of the Act.
 - (ii) The short title must contain identifying keywords or phrases used in the full title, followed by “Act of YYYY”, where “YYYY” is the four-digit year of enactment.
- (b) ORDERS-IN-COUNCIL.—A public law classified as an “Orders-in-Council”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, is not required to have either a full or short title, but may be referred to as “Orders-in-Council of [Date]”, where the bracketed section is replaced by the full date of enactment.
- (c) LETTERS PATENT.—A public law classified as a “Letters Patent”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, is not required to have either a full or short title, but may be referred to as “Letters Patent of [Date]”, where the bracketed section is replaced by the full date of enactment.
- (d) SOVEREIGN PROCLAMATIONS.—A public law classified as a “Sovereign Proclamation”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, is not required to have either a full or short title, but may be referred to as “Sovereign Proclamation of [Date]”, where the bracketed section is replaced by the full date of enactment.

SEC. 103. PREAMBLES; CONTROLLING CLAUSES.

- (a) ACTS OF STATE.—A public law classified as an “Act of State”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must begin with the following preamble, where the entirety is italicized, and “BE IT ENACTED” is also boldface, and otherwise formatted in left-aligned, 12-point text, and followed by an empty line: “BE IT ENACTED by the Grand Duke’s most Royal Highness, by and with the advice of His Councillors in this present Council assembled, and by the authority of the same in accordance with the Constitution of the Grand Duchy of Eniarku, as follows:—”; this is followed by the entire body of the document, which is in turn followed by the following enabling clause, identically formatted in boldface, 12-point text: “BY AND UNDER THE SEAL OF THE CROWN-IN-COUNCIL, SO ENACTED THIS [DAY] DAY OF [MONTH], [YEAR].”, where the bracketed sections are replaced, respectively, with the long-form day of the month, the full month name, and the long-form year.
- (b) ORDERS-IN-COUNCIL.—A public law classified as an “Orders-in-Council”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must begin with the following preamble, identically formatted in justified, 12-point text, beginning with a single standard indent: “It is this day ordered by His Royal Highness in Council that”; this is in turn followed by the contents section, as defined in §101(b)(ii).
- (c) LETTERS PATENT.—A public law classified as a “Letters Patent”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, must begin with the following preamble, formatted in justified, 12-point text, and according to the additional requirements provided for in §101(c)(i): “ALEXANDER THE FIRST by the Grace and Will of the People of the Grand Duchy of Eniarku and of Our Other Realms and Territories Sovereign Grand Duke to all Princes Dukes Marquesses Counts Barons Knights The Lords and Councillors Assembled and all other Our faithful Subjects and Citizens whatsoever to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting.”; this is followed by the contents section, as defined in §101(c)(ii), which in turn is followed by the following enabling clause, identically formatted in boldface, 12-point text: “BY WARRANT UNDER THE GRAND DUKE’S SIGN MANUAL”.

- (d) SOVEREIGN PROCLAMATIONS.—A public law classified as a “Sovereign Proclamation”, provided for by G.D. En. Const. Art. 26, is not required to have a formal preamble; the contents section defined in §101(d)(ii) is followed by the following enabling clause, identically formatted in 12-point text: “GIVEN at Our Court at [Location] under Our Hand and Seal on this, the [Day] Day of [Month], [Year], in the [Regnal Year] Year of Our Reign.”, where the bracketed sections are replaced, respectively, with the long-form day of the month, the full month name, the long-form year, and the long-form regnal year.

TITLE II—RULES OF CODIFICATION

SEC. 201. CORPUS JURIS; STRUCTURE; NUMBERING.

- (a) The Corpus Juris is the official collection of all of the laws and regulations of the State, organized by subject matter, and is to be revised by the Council of State no less than twice per annum.
- (b) The provisions of the Constitution, or any subsequent amendments or repeals thereof, are not included in the Corpus Juris.
- (c) The general structure of the Corpus Juris is as follows:
- (i) A “Title” is the primary unit, which drills down to a “Chapter”, which drills down to a “Section”, each with an increasing level of subject matter specificity.
 - (ii) New Titles and Chapters may be expressly provided for by law, while new Sections are created from previously enacted laws when they are formally codified into the Corpus Juris.
- (d) The Titles of the Corpus Juris provided for by this Act are as follows:
- (i) Title 1—General Provisions
 - (ii) Title 2—The Public Welfare and Security
 - (iii) Title 3—The Crown and Royal House
 - (iv) Title 4—National Honours and Nobility
 - (v) Title 5—The Council of State
 - (vi) Title 6—National Symbols
 - (vii) Title 7—The Cantons
 - (viii) Title 8—Commerce and Trade
 - (ix) Title 9—Domestic Affairs
 - (x) Title 10—Foreign Affairs
- (e) The numbering of units in the Corpus Juris proceeds such that a given Section of a given Chapter of a given Title is “[T] E.C.J. § [C].[###]”, where the bracketed sections are replaced, respectively, with the Title number, the Chapter number, and the Section number (which, exempli gratia, for the first Section, is “001”).

- (f) Changes to the numbering of any unit of the Corpus Juris may be expressly provided for by law, or adjusted during revisions provided for by §§(a).
- (g) Fully enacted laws that have not yet been published in the Corpus Juris are to be cited using their abbreviations provided for in §3(a).
- (h) Upon publication in the Corpus Juris, the official numbering of fully enacted laws provided for in §§(e) should be given preference over their abbreviations provided for in §3(a).

SEC. 202. CODIFICATION OF PUBLIC LAWS; PROCEDURE.

- (a) Laws may include, in a section reserved for miscellaneous provisions, explicit instructions regarding the units of the Corpus Juris under which the law is to be codified.
- (b) Fully enacted laws and regulations are placed on the Revision Register, which serves as the official list of laws and regulations that must be codified at the next revision of the Corpus Juris, as provided for by §201(a), and is to be maintained by the Council of State.
- (c) Pursuant to §201(a), the Council of State may convene with or without The Sovereign to formally review laws and regulations on the Revision Register and codify them in the Corpus Juris.
- (d) The power to determine its own review and codification process for laws and regulations on the Revision Register, if any, is reserved to the Council of State.

TITLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 301. AMENDMENTS.

- (a) Any section or provision of this Act may be amended, modified, altered, or repealed, in part or in its entirety, at any time by the Council of State as chaired by The Sovereign.
- (b) Any section or provision of this Act that is amended, modified, altered, or repealed, in part or in its entirety, pursuant to pursuant to §§(a), must be appropriately marked by strike-through text.

SEC. 302. CODIFICATION IN CORPUS JURIS.

- (a) Pursuant to §202(a), the entirety of this Act should be codified under sub-units of Title 1 of the Corpus Juris.
- (b) Pursuant to §202(c)-(d), the Council of State reserves the right to codify particular provisions of this Act under various Chapters contained within Title 1 of the Corpus Juris in a manner that may be provided for by law.
- (c) Pursuant to §301, the Council of State reserves the right to codify (or re-codify) particular provisions of this Act in the Corpus Juris as amended, modified, altered, or repealed, in a manner that may be provided for by law.

BY AND UNDER THE SEAL OF THE CROWN-IN-COUNCIL, SO ENACTED THIS TWENTY-NINTH DAY OF MAY, TWO THOUSAND AND TWENTY-FOUR.

