- (b) “Program” is used to designate the diplomatic expansion efforts outlined in this specific Act.
- (c) “Foreign state” and “foreign nation” are used to designate any entity with which the State has the capacity to enter into diplomatic relations.
- (d) “Diplomatic relations” and “foreign relations” are used to designate any formal or informal relationship between the State and one or more foreign states that involves communication, cooperation, or another form of systematic interaction.
- (e) “Nation of interest” is used to designate any foreign state with which the Government has expressed an interest in engaging in diplomatic relations.

TITLE I—PROGRAM OVERVIEW

SEC. 101. PURPOSE; GOAL.

- (a) This Program is intended to serve as a guide for the expansion of diplomatic relations between the State and specific nations of interest.
- (b) The goal of this Program is to significantly expand the formal relations of the State with foreign states that share common interests and values with the Government and occupy critical strategic positions within the intermicronational community.

SEC. 102. PROGRAM TERMS.

- (a) Within the constraints of this Act, the Program is to focus primarily on the establishment of formal diplomatic relations through the ratification of a Treaty of Mutual Recognition, Friendship, and Cooperation with each nation of interest.
- (b) Each Treaty of Mutual Recognition, Friendship, and Cooperation must include a title page and preamble, followed by the following articles:
 - (i) Terms and conditions;
 - (ii) Dispute settlement;
 - (iii) Amendments;
 - (iv) Annulment; and,
 - (v) Signatories.
- (c) The Government shall transmit each Treaty of Mutual Recognition, Friendship, and Cooperation to each nation of interest listed in §201 of this Act within a reasonable amount of time following the enactment thereof.
- (d) If, after reasonable effort by the Government and the passage of 30 days, a nation of interest fails to respond to the Government's request to engage in diplomatic relations by joint ratification of the Treaty of Mutual Recognition, Friendship, and Cooperation, the Government shall notate the nation of interest's non-response in the database provided for by §202(b) of this Act and draft of the aforementioned Treaty shall be archived appropriately.
- (e) If, after the conditions set forth in the immediately foregoing section have been met and the passage of 90 days, the nation of interest has failed to respond to the Government's initial communications regarding the establishment of diplomatic relations, the nation of interest shall be deemed to be inactive and the Government shall notate the nation of interest's inactivity in the database provided for by §202(b) of this Act and shall be ineligible for the reconsideration of diplomatic relations for no less than 120 days following the date of the Government's initial communications.
